Introduction

“SEX.”

People are obsessed with it.

We think about it, read about it, talk about it and dream of it. Since the beginning of time we have been irresistibly attracted to the opposite sex.

And this entire time religion has been right there in the background condemning our most basic human needs of sex, love, and affection.

God is the very essence of love, sex is at the very core of our beings, and sex is the most beautiful and deepest expression of our love for another person.

Don't listen to them who would judge, criticize, and condemn you. Follow your loving hearts... and know that you are blessed.

LOVE TO THE FULLEST

So strong is the desire to find a mate that we can be attracted to a complete stranger in a matter of seconds.

We get almost hypnotized with a glance. We are infatuated when another soul resonates with ours, however fleeting that may be. It's crazy when you think about it. But it's also beautiful.

Yet we condemn ourselves. People sometimes relegate these feelings to dark, base, primal instincts that are surely "not of God". Or so they would have us believe.

We, as God's creatures, are here to love and live life to the fullest.

God does not condemn us.

Why should we?

"If we love one another, God dwelleth in us and His love is perfected in us." (1 John 4:12)

EVERYTHING & EVERYWHERE

Everywhere you look, everything is mating. Whether it be at the microscopic level of amoebas, or at the gigantic scale of elephants, all living things are getting together and mating.

Male birds strut their stuff and chase females in flight during their mating ritual. Squirrels do their dance as they bounce up and down tree limbs. Dogs go crazy with excitement, bees pollinate flowers, and even the tiniest bugs can be seen doing their thing.

When we see a nature show on television, whether it be about alligators or lions, or butterflies or giraffes, we are all curious to see how they “do it”.

People the whole world over are obsessed with sex. You will never find a school kid skipping a sexual education class! People have become fixated with finding Mr. or Mrs. Right. And television has only helped make us all the more frustrated when we don't find them.

The desire to find a mate is a deep seated instinct in every living thing. And we are no exception. It is a God given, basic human need as natural as our need for food or drink or sleep.

All of nature is playing the mating game and we accept that as natural, yet so many are under condemnation of our most natural, God created expression of love.

Religious fanatics are at the forefront of this widespread repression. We all know that.

Stop helping them continue: Stop believing them!

PURITANS

The majority of Christians today are uptight and puritanical when it comes to sex.

They are more interested in imposing their morality on you, than being examples of God's unconditional love and acceptance themselves.

IN GOD'S IMAGE

Many religious people condemn booze, sex, nudity, the human body, dancing, not wearing the right kind of clothes, and any number of things we do, or don't do. They want us to think God doesn't like these things. How ridiculous.

Why would God be against so many things that we humans like? God put many of these likes and desires in us!

Billions of people practicing all of the world's major religions treat all kinds of things like something shameful or dirty and not of God. Yet deep down they don't even believe it themselves.

It's incredible that so many people propagate such widespread hypocrisy. It's time we stopped pretending to be something that we are not. It's time we got real.

It's time we started living more like the God in whose image we were created.

“God created man in His own image. In the image of God created He them.” (Genesis 1:27)

ASK YOURSELF

1. Does it help you (and or someone else)?
2. Does it hurt no one?

If you can answer “yes” to these two questions when faced with a decision, then you can go ahead. God will be with you. Don’t worry about what people think!

God is not about keeping senseless religious rules. God is unconditional love.

“He that loves hath fulfilled the entire law.” (Romans 13:8)

FORNICATION

Churches love that word! Without it they couldn't turn perfectly normal people, making perfectly normal love, into something vile and ugly and dirty.

Churchy Christians use SEX, (even the thought of it) as the litmus paper test of virtue and “holiness”. Nothing makes them feel more righteous than letting others know that they are not given to such vile behavior.

But God is above such nonsense. God is the very essence and creator of love, and when we are loving, we are LIKE HIM! Love is the only real yardstick. What we do with love, is good and acceptable and holy in God's eyes.

So we have religion on one side, and God on the other. Which one are you gonna believe?

ENJOY!

Let's be honest: Everybody wants a good sex life. But the churches have demonized sex. They make sex and nudity out to be dirty, shameful, "sinful". They want you to believe that God is against one of man's most basic needs.

Too many religions try to control people with sex. They make you think you have to choose between God, or sex when that's not how it is!

Don't worry about those who would condemn you. God is love. When two people love, God is right there with them.

Lovemaking is the most beautiful experience two people can have. Best of all, it's free.

Enjoy!

CHANGING DYNAMICS

In the world we are living in today things have become so complex, and people so complicated, that we are facing an entirely new set of “rules” than our parents or grandparents had to deal with.

As a general rule, remaining chaste until finding the right person with whom you will live happily ever after is not going to happen. The dynamics of dating have changed.

There’s nothing wrong with starting out as friends and lovers. It’s more realistic. It’s more practical. It’s more FUN!

A “NORMAL CHRISTIAN”

I’m not a “normal Christian” by most churches’ standards.

I am not straight laced, narrow minded and preach you have to work your way to Heaven by being squeaky clean: church clean! I, in fact, never taught my children they even had to go to church to be close to God.

I taught them the Bible, but I never taught them that booze was bad, sex was sin or any of the usual things parents condemn their children for. In short, I didn’t try to control them by repressing them and forbidding things. I didn’t buy into religion’s twisted views of booze, sex, or any number of things. My kids were free to decide for themselves what they believed in. They were free to try things, and to do pretty much whatever they wanted. And guess what? They ended up doing a lot fewer dumb things than I did at their age. Thank God for that!

My children turned into loving, caring, giving, intelligent, responsible adults. They never got into drugs, never had an alcohol problem, and certainly have never been in jail.

They are spiritually minded, yet they still have their feet on the ground. They each have a personal relationship with God. They follow Him, are mightily blessed by Him, and know it! What more could a parent ask for?

We enjoy God, the life He has given us in this world, and look forward to Heaven in the next.

Sure, as a parent I feel I made some mistakes. But without religious pressuring, guilt trips, and saying that everything fun is either dirty, bad, or a sin, my kids turned out ok.

I don't see God as a heartless dictator who doesn't want us to have fun, get drunk once in a while, enjoy good food, sex, nature, the fruit of our labors, friends and fun times, as long as we do things in a loving way and are respectful and considerate of others.

Religion is a creation of man, not of God. That's what I think. But I'm a bad Christian.

That's what they tell me.

LONELINESS

A lot of people are lonely nowadays. People get online looking for love, looking for companionship. Loneliness is killing people.

But we have found there is a really simple cure for loneliness. And that is to get out of yourself and into others.

When we start thinking of others it often makes our own problems seem small. When we get busy trying to help someone else, our own problems just disappear! It really is that simple.

We all need each other.

KIDS AND SEX

Kids leave home when they reach legal age for one main reason: Sex! They always have and they always will. Most of us were no exception.

Parents the world over raise their children in a repressive atmosphere where they can't even talk about such things. So kids sneak around behind their parents' backs and experiment with these things anyway.

Kids rebel against people trying to control them. They leave home. They reject religion. They reject God.

FOR A HAPPIER RELATIONSHIP

Communication in a relationship is more than just talking and saying what you want or think. Communication is also listening.

To listen, doesn't only mean to hear with our ears, but to listen with our ears, hearts, and minds.

It means to put yourself in your partner's place, to really try and understand what they mean. To listen to their heart.

To be a good communicator we must first ask questions and be willing to change our viewpoint. We must be open to seeing things as others see them.

Let's all try to be better communicators, and show love to our mate by TRULY listening.

THE MARRIAGE GOD

People have made a god out of marriage.

Did you know there is not a single marriage ceremony in the Bible?

And concerning after this life, the Bible says there is no marriage in Heaven. They neither marry nor are given in marriage.

Religion says that you gotta be married to have sex. That is, if you don't want to make God mad. How ridiculous is that, when God says nothing about that in His Word? On the contrary, the Bible clearly says, To the pure all things are pure! God is love.

And I believe that whatever a person does in love, whatever a person does with love is cool with God.

That's all there is to that!

THE YARDSTICK

Some people say that drinking is “a sin”, or dancing, sex, or any number of other things. They get so critical of what other people are doing. Even breast feeding a baby is dirty and shameful to these people. They are seriously messed up.

It’s really not the things we do that matter to God as much as if we are obeying Him and have love in our hearts, if we do things with love, or with a lack of love.

Love is the ONLY yardstick by which our lives will be judged.

If people spent less time condemning others for things that maybe for them are not even sins, if they spent even half their time focused on being more loving, the world would be a much better place.

And we would ALL be a lot happier!

“Let all your things be done with love.” (1 Corinthians 16:14)

RELIGIOUS BS

I believe in God, and I believe we are ALL here on earth to learn to love. I don't accept that natural pleasures such as food and drink are bad. Nor do I believe that nudity or the human body is dirty or that sex is sinful. I believe that God gave man all these pleasures to enjoy.

It's just ridiculous that people think that something that feels like Heaven, is from hell or of the Devil. It's not!

And it's equally as ridiculous that people listen to religious crazies and buy into their BS that God somehow doesn't want them to enjoy the pleasures of sex and intimacy with another person.

European countries and a few others like Brazil for example, have a much healthier attitude towards sex. In fact, it is the countries that are deeply steeped in religion that have the most unnatural, repressive, and sinful view of sex. Christians, Jews, Muslims, and Hindus all fit into this category.

YOU KNOW

So many people have a false concept of God. They have been taught fear of God for so long now that they don't know what to think.

You don't have to keep a bunch of rules to please God. You do not have to go to church. You will not go to hell if you don't. Neither will you go to hell if you drink, have sex, dance, wear certain clothes, or do any other dumb things laid out by fundamentalist Christians.

You don't need anyone to tell you how to live your life.

DO be aware however, that the seeds you plant every day will most certainly produce fruits in your life, both good and bad. This is unavoidable. Also know, that the things you do in this life will carry over into the next.

So, follow your conscience. Deep down in your heart, you know what to do. Deep down in your heart, you KNOW how you should live!

JESUS WAS ALL ABOUT LOVE

Did you know that many of the things religions teach us nowadays never even came from Jesus and His teachings? In fact, Jesus' entire message can be summed up in one word: LOVE.

He taught us to love God, put God first in our lives, and to love our neighbor, those around us. This is Jesus' simple message. And it is as good for us today as it was for people back then in His day.

Jesus isn't religion. Jesus is love. And God's ONLY LAW is love.

Imagine what the world would be like if everyone only lived by Jesus' SIMPLE rule!

“All the law is fulfilled in one thing: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.” (Galatians 5:14)

START PRACTICING!

Science has proven that a tiny newborn baby needs to be touched. He needs to be cuddled to grow healthy.

Yet people are starving for affection. People are starving for love.

With so many of us here on the Earth, and with there being roughly an equal amount of both sexes, why are so many people lonely?

Because many think only of themselves. They are looking to receive. They haven't realized that a happy relationship, a happy marriage, is where two people give.

When they both give, then they both receive at the same time. It's really quite simple.

So if you want to find someone special, if you would like to have a lively, fun, rewarding, and satisfying relationship...

Start practicing for it NOW.

Learn to be GIVING!

“The generous soul shall be made prosperous.” (Proverbs 11:25)

“PUT IT OUT!”

Religion demonizes sex.

Because of the church's fear of wildfire, and their fear of losing control they quench all fire. They end up putting it all out, along with its accompanying warmth and light.

ONLY GOD KNOWS!

Sex, booze, short dresses, and dancing.
The tooth fairy, Protestants, Catholics, Jews.
Marijuana, Muslims, Joel Osteen, nudity, pumpkins, the Pope.

Not going to church, or temple, or mosque,
or going to church, or temple, or mosque.
Conservatives, liberals, Krishna, and Buddha.
Abortion, the flag, makeup, a thong. Cleavage, guns, pork, and red meat. Birth control, tattoos, cats, and mother-in-laws!

All of the above things are GOOD to some people. And all of the above things are sinful, evil, or BAD to others.

So...

WHICH is right? WHO is right?

There is no cookie cutter response to these and other questions. Time, context, and other factors must be taken into account when it comes to many things in life.

Only GOD knows. Only God sees the whole picture, and only God sees the heart.

Who are any of us to think we know...

MORE THAN GOD?!

“Judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts.” (1 Corinthians 4:5)

TEMPESTS IN TEACUPS

I feel sorry for people like Tiger Woods. Here is a man who they say got caught in “adultery”. So who cares? That should be something between him and his wife. No one else!

But the media played it up big time. They harped on it for weeks. You would have thought that the media was on the church’s payroll! When someone gets caught doing something the church says is “bad”, everyone jumps on the band wagon of condemnation. If he is a public figure, sponsors dump him, colleagues betray him, and the press crucifies him.

It doesn’t matter if he is a star athlete, a genius of a scientist, or a pioneer for the poor and needy, he is to be shunned from henceforth for being a “bad role model”.

Why do we even want leaders in their field to be role models promoting religious values that are in fact the views of the moral minority? Their personal lives should be strictly a matter between them and their mates.

Why are we letting religion and the press impose their twisted set of morals on us all?

THE MONSTER OF JEALOUSY

Jealousy is not a virtue. Jealousy is not proof that you love someone. Jealousy is selfishness.

Jealousy is the spirit of feeling that you've been mistreated, that you deserve better.

Jealousy is a monster. People have even killed the person they say they love, out of jealousy. Imagine that!

Jealousy is not love: It is the opposite of love. Because love, real love, is preferring someone else's happiness over your own, even if it hurts.

“VIVE LA DIFFÉRENCE!”

Getting along with the opposite sex is not only challenging; it can be downright frustrating! And sometimes we may be tempted to give up trying.

Since the beginning of time men and women have had difficulty understanding each other, because we are different. God made us different.

And the problem comes when we insist on trying to make the opposite sex see things the way we do, when we expect them to be like us.

It would be boring to live in a world where men and women were all the same!

We are not supposed to try to be like each other. We are here to learn from each other, enjoy each other. That's the beauty of love.

As the French say... “Vive la différence!”

SHAMEFUL, EVIL, UGLY & NASTY!

We should all be fed up by now with churches telling us that sex is a “sin”. God is not mad at people for having sex, as long as it is between two consenting adults.

Churches of course say that they are only against sex outside of marriage. The problem is, they want to be the ones who define “marriage”!

Sex is shameful, evil, ugly and nasty unless it fits their narrow minded definition of “right and wrong”.

HOLD ON TO LOVE

A man and a woman meet. They embark upon a romance that may end up lasting only a short while instead of many years.

But when a relationship doesn't last as long as what we hoped for, it doesn't mean it was a mistake.

Just because what started as a loving relationship didn't play out as we wanted it to, doesn't mean it was wrong.

God is love. Jesus came for love. He showed us how to love. Things sure didn't turn out very nice for Him in the end, did they? But His loving us wasn't a mistake.

So, love!

And don't look back with regrets. Don't listen to those who would rob you of God's blessing.

Whatever you do for love will last forever!

“Cast thy bread upon the waters, and thou shalt find it after many days.” (Ecclesiastes 11:1)

WE ALL SPEAK IT

We all need love. We all understand loving concern.

We may not speak a foreign language, but there is one universal language everyone speaks, everyone understands. Love transcends borders, cultures, and age.

We don't have to all agree on politics. We don't all have to see eye to eye on religion, social issues, or sports. But we can love. We can be loving in our dealings with others.

Gentle, tender, respectful.

Tolerant, patient, and accepting.

Caring, sharing, and kind:

LOVE.

MAN'S LONGING

Birds frolic in the sky. Squirrels play in the trees, as do horses in the field, fish in the sea...

Multiplication is the name of the game. From the tiniest microorganism to the largest of jungle animals, each one seeks its mate.

No wonder people feel lonely. Every other creature seems to find their mate.

That's because man's lonely feeling was put there by God. And that deep longing in his heart can only be filled with God.

But once you fill it...

Then God may very well give you the PERFECT mate!

“Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33)

GROW UP!

God created us to want to hold someone, and to be held. God wants us to be loving. And God created us to feel good sexually in His love.

Sure, I know a lot of people, most of them probably, don't have their minds on the Lord while making love, but if they are making each other happy, and as long as they are not hurting anyone, how can that ever be a bad thing? It certainly isn't in God's eyes.

For generations now the churches have told us this lie, that sex is dirty and God is mad at us for doing it. They certainly imply "you gotta be a sinner to enjoy sex". And "a good Christian doesn't do that".

Isn't it time we woke up and instead of being embarrassed and talking about it in hushed tones like giggly little children, stop swallowing that lie?

Let's be more honest with ourselves, and GROW UP!

ALIVE!

Mainstream religion has turned so many people off of God. People are fed up with being told they have to keep all kinds of senseless rules. They are tired of being told that alcohol is evil and sex, intimacy and love making are sins.

People are disillusioned with hypocrisy and bored with “churchianity”. They have more fun doing anything other than something so-called religious. And that’s not surprising!

Religion is dead. God is ALIVE and lives in the hearts of those who love!

“God has delivered us from the power of darkness into the kingdom of His dear son.” (Colossians 1:13)

STEPPING STONES

Someone told us the other day that she was not very lucky in love. She said that she had made some wrong choices in her life as far as relationships went.

Well, nothing happens by coincidence. Nothing happens by chance.

Everything in our lives, all the experiences, every relationship we have, both good and bad, are mere stepping stones to make us what we need to be.

Many things in life don't turn out as we plan. But that doesn't mean we have made bad choices.

Sometimes our greatest victories come out of seeming defeat. And we learn lessons of love, compassion and humility that way.

LOVE IS GIVING

They say there are two types of people:
givers, and takers.

Selfishness sure seems to be rampant in the world today. No wonder people are unhappy.

But love is all about giving, and when two people give, they both receive.

When we care about someone, we put their happiness above our own.

You can give without love...

But you can't love, without GIVING!

A REAL COMPANION

Studies show a tiny baby needs to be held to be healthy. Babies need human contact, warmth, and love.

We as adults are no different. We all need to be held and cuddled, yet many are too embarrassed to admit it.

People are starving for love. People are starving for that same human warmth. So many people are lonely.

God can supply all your needs, including a companion. But you have to put God first in your life. And then, wait for someone who is doing the same thing while they are waiting for you.

God will bring the two of you together in His time!

“No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly.” (Psalms 84:11)

WHEN PEOPLE LOVE

We believe in love. We believe that God is the spirit of love.

We believe that when people who don't even know God are loving, God is there.

We believe in a greater God, a God greater than church, religion, dogmas and denominations.

We believe in a simple God. We believe in a God that even a child can understand.

We believe that where there is love, there is God.

We believe that God is the spirit of love. We believe in love.

“We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.” (1 John 4:16)

TRUE LOVE

We live in a world where sex is thrown at us by television and movies. Music and magazines rub it in our face, yet more people are sexually frustrated than ever.

With the exception of Christians, sex is no longer socially unacceptable, and people seem to be doing it more than ever. In fact, people are doing things unheard of just a few years ago, yet they are still left unsatisfied. Why is this?

It's because sex for some people has become a purely mechanical thing. And mechanical sex, no matter how good, often, or intense, will become old. No matter how many new things, new ways or new mates you try... you will eventually be left unsatisfied. You will always be wanting "more".

Only real love can fill that aching spiritual void in man's heart, and love is more than mere sex. Love is thinking of someone else instead of yourself, and trying to make them happy. Love is giving, not taking.

It's when two people love and give unselfishly of themselves, when two people each put the other's happiness above their own, that they discover the beauty of love. They find a greater happiness and also discover the wonders of a more satisfying intimacy and sexual union.

Only God can give us that kind of unselfish love, because God IS love. God is the very essence of love, true love.

WHAT DOES GOD WANT?

For thousands of years religions have told us “what God wants” of us!

They have been so presumptuous so as to tell us all kinds of rules that God supposedly wants us to keep. Yet they can't even make up their mind as to what those rules are!

Most paint God as distant, as a heartless tyrant. Some things they say about God don't make any sense. Others are just plain dumb!

No wonder so many people say they don't want God. They just don't want the God portrayed by these people!

So then just exactly what DOES God want of us? Jesus taught us that all we have to do is love God and our neighbor. The only law, the only rule we now have is to LOVE.

So don't worry about religion's rules.

Be loving, and you will be fulfilling God's ONLY law!

THAT PIECE OF PAPER

Why are so many people obsessed with trying to control who has sex with who?

If you are not what they call married, which means simply having a piece of paper, then you are “living in sin.” Yet so many people only have that piece of paper. That is the extent of their marriage!

According to most religions, you get that piece of paper and you are ok with God to have all the sex you want. Then, when you get bored, just get another piece of paper, and split up!

But then of course sex is out of the question they say, because if you don't have that piece of paper you are living in sin again! To them, desire and sex are ok as long as you have a paper. But they become “lust and fornication” without that paper. How ridiculous.

God doesn't care about a piece of paper. God looks at your heart. God's only yardstick is love. All God sees are two people who love each other.

And two people who love each other, see a little bit of God!

“God is love. He that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.” (1 John 4:16)

THE TIMES ARE CHANGING

I think it's great that people are shedding the stigma and condemnation of religion concerning love, romance and non-traditional, non monogamous, and open types of relationships.

Timeless values such as honesty, integrity, equality and communication, along with a conscious management of jealousy, make for deep, committed, long-term, relationships, as opposed to purely sexual encounters. And all but guarantee happiness for everyone concerned.

A loving, intimate relationship that helps someone and hurts no one, can never be wrong...
And will always be blessed by God!

A SIMPLE PRAYER

Lord, open my mind, open my heart and open my eyes that I may see the bigger picture, Your greater plan, and how I fit into it.

In Jesus' name, amen.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST...

No one could more beautifully or eloquently sum up life, love, and what our sojourn here on this earth is all about than Betty Eadie. We close with the following passage from one of her wonderful books:

“To love is the reason we exist. To learn to love more fully is the reason we have come to earth. Love is the energy which holds the universe in place. It is the gateway through which we return to our Creator.

“Love can conquer any problem, ease any suffering, heal any disease. Love creates and magnifies the joys of life. And at the moment of death, love turns all earthly pain into indescribable bliss.

“We were conceived in Love spiritually, and Love is the center of our beings. It is the energy of our souls, the spark of our divine nature.

“Being made of love, we cleave to it and seek it in all that we do. When we do not have it, or when we have lost it, we grieve.

“Its presence or absence colors our every action. It is life. It is happiness. It is salvation itself.

“On earth our spirits miss the electrifying power of love. Our minds are veiled, but our spirits remember this love, and silently we cry for its comfort and soothing warmth.

“Some of us spend our lives weaving in and out of relationships, searching for the essence of this divine emotion, hunting it, craving it, but never finding it in this world.

“Some of us cry to God for this love, expecting Him to send it to us through another person.

“But it first must come from ourselves.”

(Betty Eadie “The Ripple Effect”)

“In the beginning” there was SEX!

---

Does God even consider sex to be a “sin”?

---

Religions have always self righteously condemned sex and intimacy.

God’s only “law” is love!

It’s outrageous that something so beautiful, so natural, and wonderous as sex has been demonized for so long by the religious world. And they continue to try to push their agenda on us even today in our modern age.

Churches have always called sex “a sin”. And Christians have always condemned nudity and the human body as “shameful and dirty”.

But this goes against everything it says in the book they profess to follow.

It’s time we stopped letting them bully us all with their guilt trips and condemnation!

Their attitude is, “If you talk about God, don’t mention sex.”

As far as they are concerned, you can talk about sex as much as you want, as long as you keep God out of the picture!
